THE panic of 1907 was-but what's the use, its forgotten now.

AT this writing it appears that Indiana is for Fairbanks, New York for Hughes, Illinois for Cannon and about all the other states for Taft, for the Presidential nomination.

STATES addicted to starving out their militia have been given an object lesson in Nevada. An efficient citizen soldiery is a necessity and a state that neglects its National Guard will surely have occasion to apologize! for itself .-Globe-Democrat.

JOHN E. Swanger has made a fine record as Secretary of State, and as far as any body in this necko'-the-woods knows, is the best man in the party to hold the place for another four years. Mr. Swanger will be warmly supported and will have no very aggressive opposition for the nomination .-Watchman-Advocate.

This will be a busy year. There will be lots doing to interest all the people. State elections and the National elections will keep the politicians busy enough to keep them out of mischief. The business people will have to get up early to keep up with their business and the farmers will soon be at work making another crop so big that it will tax the railroads to their full capacity to haul it to market and the bankers to find the ready cash to move it.

The High Hill poultry association organized Dec. 7, 1907. It will hold its first annual exhibit of Pure Bred Poultry in Gerdeman's hallin High Hill, Jan. 23, 24 and 25th, 1908. This show will be open to exhibitors everywhere and already sufficient numbers of birds have been pledged to assure a big show and the officers and directors are making special efforts to make it one of the largest and best poultry shows in the state outside of the state show at Sedalia, and the big shows at St. Louis and Kansas City.

Missouri Wins First Place

Mr. Turner C. Cochran, a student of the University of Missouri made the highest score among feurty-two students competing from eight institutions at the recent Live Stock Show at Chicago. Not only did Mr. Cochran win first as best all round judge of the 1907 Show, but his score of 992 points was the highest ever made by any student since the organization of the International Show. The Animal Husbandry students from the University of Missourt also won two out of the five Armour Scholarships offered for the most proficient work in judging together." contest. The showing made by Missouri in her first systematic attempt is remarkable considering that her competitors have been training judging teams since the beginning of the International.

IT IS TO LAUGH.

You Cannot Now Be Popular Without Knowing It.

When the terms for singing lessions had been agreed upon the teacher said:

"For 50 cents a week extra I will give you a lesson in laughing, too." "Laughing?" exclimed the prespecttive pupil. "What shall I laugh at?" "Anything-nothing. But you must laugh if you expect to be popular. What is more, you must laugh out loud. The days of ultra-refinement, when merriment could be properly expressed only by a smirk and a smile, happily passed. People laugh heartily nowadays, but at the same time they should laugh musically. That is, they ought to put a few silvery notes into their peals of joy, and those who are wise enough to study laughing do put them there. Unnot so well patronized as they should As yet the laughter of most peo-Take your own case, for example. I heard you laugh a little while ago, it sounded like--

"Yes, I dare say it did," interrupted the prospective pupil, "but I had a good time, just the same."

The teacher threw back her head and emitted a merry tintinnabulation of her own.

"There," she said, "you ought to laugh like that. Of course all laughs cannot sound alike. There is the so prano laugh, the contralto laugh and the mezzo laugh, the laugh 'he-he," the laugh 'ha-ha,' and the laugh 'ho-The quality of a person's laugh is largely determined by temperament, but no matter what its natural tone, it can be trained into a thing of beauty. Nowadays all students of singing are advised to look for their laugh. Many have accepted the suggestion, and in six months from now any girl who aspires to shine socially must laugh in fluent trills. Now, for the sum of only 50 cents-

The prospective pupil shook her head sadly.

"I'd like to," she said, "but I can" afford it. If it comes to the worst I shall have to swear off on laughing al-

At the Turn of the Tide.

It was asserted by Aristotle that no animal dies near the sea except at the ebbing of the tide. This idea in some form or another has been popular for centuries.

Such a notion, I find, still exists at Gravesend. An old salt who used to sit by a dying man in an ale house on the shore of the Thames told me he noticed my patient was always worse at the turn of the tide, and then got better after the tide had turned. Readers of Dickens cannot forget the ac count in "David Copperfield" of Mr. Barkis "goffig out with the tide."

According to Aristotle and Mr. Peg-According to Aristotic and Mr. Peggotty, it is at the ebbing of the tide that death always occurs. But at Gravesend, I am told, it does not matter whether the tide is at the ebb or flow; it is just at the turn of the tide that death occurs. "I have often seen it happen, sir." an old shrimper said to me quite recently.—Practitioner in the Hospital

TATTOOING CRAZE

DISFIGURING ONE'S SKIN NOW THE PROPER THING.

Americans in Europe Seem to Have Gone Mad Over the Subject According to an Authority in London.

Americans have gone tattoo mad Such is the inference to be drawn from a recent conversation w Alfred South, a famous English and continental tattooist. According to the artist the rich have stolen the thunder of the poor. The practice of covering the body with elaborate designs, which was supposed to be the special weakness of the low-class sailor, has ascended the social ladder and is now the amusement of the aristocracy.

Certain well-known Americans, if we are to believe Mr. Smith, would present the appearance of animated picture galleries could we see them in the nude. Their backs, chests, legs and arms are covered with crouching tigers, poised snakes and more or less beautiful women. The son of one of the largest watch manufacturers in the United States, who is many times a millionaire, had a fac simile of his father's particular brand of timepiece tattooed on his chest by Mr. South. He had the hands showing the hour to be exactly 12 and remarked that no matter where he was he could always refer to it at exactly that time of day and always correct his fallible time-

Many Americans have commisple is a series of cacophonious coughs. sloned Mr. South to tattoo copies of pictures by their favorite artist on their shoulders, chests or backs. In this respect Charles Dana Gibson easily leads the field as the most popular American draughtsman. One American millionaire, a crack rifle shot and premier horse owner, is the proud possessor of a "Gibson Girl" on his left shoulder.

It seems that many Americans have had their full names tattooed on their wrists and forearms. Mr. South says he has many American women as customers. They are more sentimental than the sterner sex, according to the artist, and they run to names, or the private crests of their sweethearts. The work is usually done on the legs, but many of the fairer sex are having elaborate designs executed on their backs. In this as in other walks of life fair woman has lived up to her reputation for a chameleonlike state of mind, for the artist declares he has several times changed the name of a sweetheart for women customers.

The tattooing craze appears to be even more advanced in England and on the continent than in the United States. Here is seems to have touched even the highest rung of the social ladder. The prince of Wales himself is said to have some most artistic work on his arm, while the crown princess of Denmark, Lady Cornwallis West and members of the royal family of Russia are said to be devotees of the craze. Some of them are even said to have become adept at the

FROM PEOPLE YOU KNOW-FROM MONTGOMERY CITIZENS

The greatest skeptic can hardly evidence like this. It is imposible to produce better proof of merit then the testimony of residents of Montgomery, of people who can be seen at any time. Read the following case of it:

W. N. Mitchell, farmer, living in the north-western part of Montgomery City, Mo., says, "I found it very difficult to work on account of the condition my back was in. It was not only lame but it ached constantly and there was some bladder trouble accompanying it. Such as to have to rise frequently at night and difficulty in passing the kidney secretions. I was ner-a tired feeling that clung to me in spite of the different remedies that I tried. Finally reading of W. C. Hughes Doan's Kidney Pills, I was induced to go to Crump & Kidwell's Drug Store and get them. Since using them I am free from the trouble in my back, stiffness in my neck and head-aches. My kidneys are active and no urinary annoyances afflicts me. Doan's Kidney Pills are a reliable remedy."

SERPENT IN NEVADA LAKE.

Two Men Affirm That They Have Seen the Reptile.

A report from Walker lake states that a monster sea serpent has been seen at northern end of the lake. Dan Cornelison, a mining man of good reputation for veracity, brought the story to Goldfield. Cornelison says that both he and a companion named John McCorry sighted the reptile while fishing from a boat half a mile from the northern shore of the lake. The monster was then making its way toward the east shore of the lake. Cornelison says that at first sight he took the serpent for a man in a skiff, and when it disappeared for a moment he thought the boat had capsized, and rowed toward the spot, when it suddenly reappeared, giving them a good view of its proportions, which they estimated to be about 30 feet in length and 6 feet across the back. Another res'dent of that vicinity, a man named Peters, is said to have discovered the serpent sometime ago reposing in shallow water near the shore, and on being aroused it disappeared in deeper water. There is also said to be a legend among the Plutes around Shurz concerning the existence of a serpent in Walker lake.—Sacramento Bee.

"Sir." said the man as he entered the office, "I wish to exhibit to you my universal calculating machinea thing that should be found in the counting room of every business man. It will add, subtract, divide, multiply, and there is no such thing as failure." "I have heard of it," replied the merchant, "but I never understood it was much of a success." "O, sir, but it is perfection! Give me any example you will, and I will guarantee a correct solution." "Very well. I bought two dozen leghorn chickens at $3 each. I built a coop at an expense of $30. In one year I bought $25 worth of feed. In the same year I got six eggs. What was my profit or loss for the year?" "Why, you paid out $127 and got back about 20 cents. In actual figures, your loss was $126.80." "I guess that's correct," sighed the merchant, "and you may leave me two machines. I'll keep one busy on my chickens and the other figuring out how much profit I make in raising my own celery and cu-
